Lonely Man of Faith

The Life and Legacy of Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik

Sunday May 11, 2008

7:30pm

Congregation Keter Torah
600 Roemer Avenue, Teaneck

“Lonely Man of Faith” deals with the life and legacy of Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik, who arguably was the most influential leader of the American Jewish community in the Twentieth Century. Known as “The Rav”, he was a widely acknowledged Talmudic mastermind, and at the same time, an important philosophical thinker.

Rabbi Soloveitchik spent much of his life trying to negotiate the demands of Judaism and the opportunities of the modern age, and this struggle became a constant theme throughout his teachings. Now, over two decades after his departure from the public scene, Rabbi Soloveitchik’s impact reverberates even today, as his students, friends, and family continue to debate his complicated legacy.

Following the screening of this unique documentary film there will be a panel discussion featuring Rabbi Jacob J Schachter, Rabbi Yosef Adler, and Rabbi Michael Taubes, distinguished students of the Rav.
